A CLIENT GUIDE

ABOUT ME

Hi I'm Tash, I am a Perth, WA based photographer specialising in Maternity, Family and Newborn photography. I love genuine moments and believe that photo shoots are meant to be a fun, relaxed and a memorable experience for all. When I'm not behind the lens I'm a mother to two beautiful boys and a nurse/ midwife, I love all aspects of my life and find they compliment each other seamlessly. I pride myself on making you feel comfortable and I guarantee your kids will want to hang out with me again!

My photography style is warm, emotive and intimate. I won't pose you unless you specifically ask me to. I will encourage you to play, laugh and whisper sweet nothings to one another. I want you to think of your photo shoot as an opportunity to be present, either as an individual or with your loved ones.

I look forward to meeting you, thank you for getting in touch!

LOCATIONS

Whilst I will always try and accommodate special requests and am open to new locations, I have some locations that I use regularly. This enables me to provide the best possible experience and product as I can both predict the light and landscape.

Parklands

Located in Mt Claremont this location offers a beautiful backdrop that is Perfect for any kind of shoot. Great for kids who are up for an adventure but also ideal for Maternity as it offers some gorgeous secluded spots.

Beach

I shoot along the coast between Leighton and Scarborough and have a number of preselected spots. Serene rolling sand dunes and dramatic rock faces, the beach is perfect for all types of shoot.

RIVER

Either in Mosman Park or Bicton. Shoots by the swan river provide privacy and are perfect for families wanting to include their fur babies!

IN HOME

The perfect way to create a snapshot of your life right now, the true chaos and the Lifelong memories.

What's next....

Get in touch with me, ask me anything you want! Let me know what kind of shoot you are interested in, what date you are after and any other informatio you feel might be important.

I look forward to hearing from you!
